Dear Christian Friend,

3-2020

"But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid." (Matthew 14:27)

When I look at the landscape of America right now I see an opportunity the church probably has not had since Y2K or 9-11. Panic and fear seem to rule the day. The reason behind this is not as important as the opportunity we have to show our fellow American there is a solid rock by which they can rest on and find peace and safety in the midst of a storm.

As people turn more to a survival mode the Christian can operate in a servant mode. Are you ready to reach out to your fellow American? Is it possible that God could use this current situation to awaken a sleeping church and a sinful Nation and bring revival so often prayed and preached about? As the church of Jesus Christ we need to "be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:" (1 Peter 3:15)

I am thankful the Lord has not "given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." (2 Timothy 1:7) A fearless Church, an overcoming Church, a victorious Church, this is what the world needs.

We as Christians have a hope in the future and need not fear what may come. Take care dear Christian and remember what our Lord said:

"These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." (John 16:33)

That thy way may be made known upon the earth, thy saving health among all nations.
